

<http://www.sana.sy/eng/35/2010/09/29/310468.htm>

General Archeology and Museums Directorate Signs Cooperation Agreement with Udine University

Archeological discoveries /
Sep 29, 2010 - 11:45 PM

Damascus, (SANA) –

Minister of Culture Riyadh Naasan Agha hailed the efforts of Italian archeological expeditions and the role of Italian universities in discovering more ruins since the great discovery of the Kingdom of Ebla and then the discovery of Tal Katna in Homs province.

The ministers remarks came during signing a protocol on forming a Syrian-Italian expedition to al-Meshrfeh site "The Royal Palace of Katna Kingdom" in Homs between General Archeology and Museum Directorate and Italian University of Udine.

Minister Agha pointed out to the depth of cultural relations between Syria and Italy.

For her part, Rector of Udine University Dr. Cristiana Compagne expressed happiness over her visit to Syria and the great success of Tal Katna.

Fadi Allafi /H.Sabbgh

This article is from Syrian Arab news agency - SANA - Syria : Syria news

www.sana.sy